Dear Dr. Mackie, Dr. Summers, Neal Roberts, Cathy Burghardt-Jesson, and Bill Rayburn:

On behalf of Cargill and the London facility team, we wish to extend a heartfelt thank you for your COVID-19 vaccination program and your efforts to make it easy for our stakeholders to participate. Your dedication to community safety supports our workplace safety efforts and is aligned with our value, “put people first.”

Through this effort, you have provided our employees access to the vaccine and made it possible for them to take this critical step in stopping the virus. We greatly appreciate your commitment to protecting the health and safety of our team and the broader community.

Sincerest thanks,

Jeff Vassart
President, Cargill Canada
