June 27, 2024

Thames Valley's Board of Trustees has approved boundary changes for Delaware Central and Parkview Public Schools, effective September 2025.

On June 25, trustees accepted and approved the final report of the Middlesex Elementary Panel Attendance Area Review (MEAAR). The review sought to address enrolment pressure at Delaware Central Public School.

As part of this review, it set new boundaries for both schools and changed the home school for some students in Komoka-Kilworth from Delaware Central Public School to Parkview Public School.
