Middlesex County was honoured to welcome a delegation of Cambodian local government officials for a three-day exchange visit as part of FCM's Partnerships for Municipal Innovation – Women in Local Leadership (PMI-WILL) project.

This initiative is dedicated to reducing barriers to women's participation in public life and enhancing their access to municipal services.

Standout Moments:

- A tour of the Komoka Wellness Centre and the Middlesex County Library – Komoka Branch
- Meeting Olympic Champion Scott Moir
- Tasting Fresh Maple Syrup at Fort Rose Maple Company
- Learning about communication strategies with Economic Development and Tourism

Standout Moments

- Engaging with our Women in Leadership Panel on inclusive governance
- Exploring public health programs at the Middlesex-London Health Unit
- Touring Heeman's learning about sustainable growing practices and tasting local honey
- Discovering Community Paramedicine at Middlesex London Paramedic Service

Insights Gained

Women in leadership positions across the globe often face similar challenges, regardless of the country they live in.

The experiences and insights shared throughout the visit will contribute to the advancement of women in leadership roles both in Cambodia and in Middlesex County.
